

Deconstruction Field Manager – Chicago, IL.

BlueEarth Deconstruction

BlueEarth is seeking a professional, exceptionally skilled, organized Field Manager. Candidate has a thorough understanding of the needs and activities of the role and has experience managing and organizing the activities of multiple concurrent projects at various stages of completion. Candidate is dedicated to the BlueEarth Deconstruction mission by developing the processes and practices that align with company values and delivers industry-leading results for our clients.

Field manager will have the responsibility and authority to direct work performed for each project in accordance with the statement of work. This position is also directly responsible for execution of the following:

Responsibilities:

- Embodies, implements, models, and teaches The BlueEarth Way
- Coordinate field activities including look-ahead forecasts.
- Responsible for all field personnel and scheduling; including training, identifying and developing Crew Chiefs.
- Manage on-site operations.
- Coordinate all materials and supplies with Inventory and Tool Manager
- Identify scope and schedule.
- Manages /monitors project quality control and related safety requirements on a day to day basis.
- Strict adherence to schedules.
- Interact professionally with clients and partners.
- Reports directly to company President.

Characteristics:

- Leads by example
- Hands-on
- Player-Coach, doesn't mind getting dirty
- Assists and works along side crew
- Interacts professionally with clients and partners

Requirements:

- A minimum of 3 years experience with construction projects.
- Experience managing and leading a team to complete construction tasks in an efficient and effective manner.
- Computer skills, preferred.
- Proven ability to finish work on time and with a high level of quality.
- Training: OSHA, health and safety, preferred.